INTRODUCTION

WELCOME TO THE 2022 FESTIVAL OF CHICHESTER BROCHURE! WE ARE HUGELY EXCITED ABOUT THE PROGRAMME WE'VE PUT TOGETHER FOR YOU. DIVE INTO THIS BROCHURE, AND YOU WILL FEEL THE EXCITEMENT TOO.

Were you there on that October night in 2012 when we asked everyone whether they wanted a new festival for Chichester?

We were thrilled that the answer was an emphatic, resounding yes, and it's that yes that has carried us ever since, through thick and thin – through years of rapid growth and ambition and then through the tough times of 2020 and 2021.

In a world where you can't take anything for granted, we are absolutely delighted to find ourselves in a remarkably healthy position as we contemplate the 2022 Festival of Chichester.

Amazingly it is going to be our tenth festival – proof not just of our resilience but proof above all of the loyalty and support we have been met with every step of the way.

We managed an online festival in the grim days of 2020; we managed a mix of live and online last year. Now, for 2022, we are overjoyed to offer you something which we hope will feel almost normal.

Look through these pages and relish all the opportunities they contain, a chance to come together once again to enjoy a huge range of experiences and pleasures, all of them rooted in and around this brilliant city in which we live and work.

Theatre, the spoken word, music in all its forms, cinema, walks, day trips, dance, books and all kinds of shows are all part of the merry mix.

Our programme will celebrate our emergence from the pandemic and also our landmark anniversary, but we hope it's also a programme which will honour all the difficulties we have had to endure and the sacrifices we have had to make in recent times.

It is also a programme which celebrates the organisations without which we simply couldn't survive. Once again, we are indebted to Chichester City Council for supporting us financially and always encouraging us so heartily; we are also extremely grateful for the generous coverage we always receive from the Chichester Observer, the best place to keep up to date with all the fun we will be bringing you.

We are also exceptionally grateful to our patron Dame Patricia Routledge, always so incredibly supportive of all that we do. Dame Patricia has understood our ethos right from the start and always expresses it beautifully.

So, as we have said before, dive in and explore all the superb events we have got lined up for you. We look forward to seeing you time and time again this summer.

Phil Hewitt (Festival Chairman) and Barry Smith (Festival Co-ordinator)

The Festival committee is:

Phil Hewitt (chairman), Barry Smith (co-ordinator), Katie Bennett, the Reverend Canon Dan Inman, Simon O'Hea, Anne Scicluna and Nick Sutherland.

The Festival of Chichester committee is delighted to enjoy the continuing support of its patron, Dame Patricia Routledge.
